NEW YORK, NY, April 27, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ — Thumperino - Diary of a Superbunny, a chapter book for young/middle grade readers written by Amber L. Spradlin and published by Hocks Out Press, has reached number one on the Top 100 Children's Books list, spring 2013. The book was ranked number one on both the children and teen book lists by printing and distribution service giant LuLu.com, publisher of over 1.1 million titles.

Thumperino - Diary of a Superbunny is the first book in a series that chronicles the adventures of a New York City house rabbit blessed with super-powers and a duty to make the world a better place. Ms. Spradlin's books have been nominated for The National Indie Excellence Award, The Writer's Digest Award, The Moonbeam Children's Book Award, The Anne Izard Storyteller's Choice Award, and the Parent's Choice Award. They have also been accepted into the Library of Congress and The National Library of Scotland.

The Thumperino Superbunny series also features Thumperino Superbunny and the Christmas Star Caper, which Pacific Book Review heralded: "...an enjoyable book for children and parents...a quaint story with emphasis on the basic lessons that children should learn like, deductive reasoning, determination, sharing, teamwork, sensitivity to the needs of others and acts of selflessness. I highly recommend it."

Thumperino - Diary of a Superbunny is not only a successful book but it has also become a stage musical titled The Adventures of Superbunny, which will premiere at the Midtown International Theatre Festival this July in New York City.

Thumperino - Diary of a Superbunny [ISBN 978-0-557-92160-7] is available wherever books are sold.
